FOR DECADES, Arizona has hosted Major League Baseball in March promising an incredible month of sunshine, desert beauty and warm hospitality paired with America's favorite pastime.

We all know it's the nearly 1.5 million fans that make spring training come alive and we are glad you are here once again to cheer on your favorite team! Each year, the Cactus League measures the benefits of Spring Training in Arizona and last season alone you helped bring $348 million in economic activity to the Grand Canyon state!

Take a look around any ballpark and you will see many of Arizona's community leaders volunteering their time to ensure your Spring Training experience is enjoyable. As the league continues to grow with new offerings, let us know how we can help keep Spring Training in Arizona a memory-making event for all baseball fans.

Play Ball!

Brad Curtis

President, Cactus League
